Bidvest Protea Coin Training

Over the past three weeks, managers, tactical officers, and responders have undergone specialised training at Gijima, Bidvest Protea Coin's highly acclaimed SASSETA-accredited training academy north of Pretoria.

This intensive program covered critical tactical skills, including firearm proficiency, close-quarter shooting, and advanced vehicle approach techniques. The team unanimously agreed that this was their best training experience, surpassing all previous courses they've attended at leading training facilities. Skills development is a top priority for Bidvest Protea Coin, and their on-site security team will undergo continuous training throughout the five-year contract.

The Bidvest Protea Coin contract officially begins on Saturday, 1 March 2025. From this date, all security officers will wear their new BPC uniforms. As part of Bidvest Protea Coin's sustainability program, old uniforms are repurposed into a variety of new products, reducing waste and promoting environmental responsibility.

Thank you for your continued support as we transition to this elevated security standard.

Kind regards,

Riaan Crafford
